

Photo by jurvetson, flickr.com

God

God is triune: Father, Son, and Spirit.
He is relational in essence and desires a relationship with His creation.
(Gen. 1:26; Matt. 3:16-17; Matt. 7:11)

God is just and good.
He is the source of justice and sets the moral standard. He is the source of all reality.
(Rom. 9; John 1:1; Mark 10:18)

God is infinite, eternal, transcendent, the great I AM, Jehovah.
He is beyond this world, beyond the four dimensions.
(Ex. 3:14; Ps. 90:2; John 8:58; Rev. 1:8)

God is love, holy, intelligent, truth, logic, and reason.
(John 1:1-18; I John 4:16; I Pet. 3:9)

God is self-existent, omniscient, omnipresent, and omnipotent.
(Heb. 1:3; Ps. 139; Job 38:4; I Tim 1:17)

God is personal, self-conscious and self-determined.
He thinks, acts, and has free will.
(Gen. 1:26; Ex. 33:19; Ps. 115:3)

Jesus is God, man's savior, the mediator between God and man; he died for man's sin, was buried, and rose from the dead.
(Rom. 10:9-10; I Tim. 2:5; Heb. 9:27-28)